“Dance Naked Like Truth” by Patrizia Cerroni, published in Italy by De Luca Editori d’Arte and in India by Vaniprakashan books is the courageous honest provocative autobiographical tale of the life of an internationally renowned artist of Italian culture and dance. Fully free woman rebellious nonconformist. A passionate journey of the soul into the body, in the act of creation and discovery of Eros, in which Patrizia Cerroni exposes herself by revealing her most intimate secrets and love stories. A compelling reading, clear precise sharp writing. The story travels around the world during her many international tours to dwell on Rome, New York and India, where she has lived for a long time, and on her memorable meetings and collaborations from the 70s to today with artists such as Charlie Mingus, Zakir Hussain, Giacinto Scelsi, Mario Schifano, David and Dory Zard, Michelangelo Antonioni, Fabio Mauri. The author in involving the reader on EFT (Emotional Freedom Techniques), a therapeutic tool she practiced, offers many effective keys to creative fullness and conveys the awareness that we are the true authors of our lives through the most difficult of achievements, that of being able to love ourselves.

Patrizia Cerroni, dancer, choreographer/director, was the founder in 1974 of the Historical Contemporary Dance Company “Patrizia Cerroni & I Danzatori Scalzi”. He has received prestigious international awards and recognitions including the ‘Silver Plate’ from the President of the Italian Republic Carlo Azeglio Ciampi and the Indian Government ‘La Main Ouverte’, Le Corbusier, Chandigarh. In an artistic activity with over 40 productions (2000 shows in Italy, 28 intercontinental tours, 25 European tours) Patrizia Cerroni is present in the most important International Theaters and Festivals including: Seoul Olympics Arts Festival, Gala Italia in New York, Taormina Arte, Festival of Spoleto, Umbria Jazz, Teatro Olimpico di Roma, Simón Bolívar in São Paulo, Opera House in Cairo, Fiume.

Considered the head of a style of dance defined by international critics as completely ‘original’, with her more than 300 professional dancers and 20 Italian choreographers have been trained. She has received numerous other awards and accolades: Apollo Musagete - Targa Guido Monaco, Donna Circe Award, Capo Circeo Award, Targa Nello Flora, City of Agrigento Award, Golden Seagull, Piazza del Popolo International Award, International Ginestra d’Oro Award. In 2010, she was recognized as an EFT Practitioner certification by Tapping Solution, USA.

Since 2013 she has been holding her workshops, “PATRIZIA’S WELL”, in India and in USA.
